

FROM SMALL BEGINNINGS

MARK 4:26-34

Their future doesn't look very promising. After all, Jesus and his followers are just a small group of people in a little corner of Palestine, with few friends among the religious leaders and those in authority, and with a message that doesn't seem to be reaching very far.

So Jesus tries to get the disciples to imagine what the kingdom of God will be like. He uses images, little stories or parables, to paint a picture of God's kingdom and its future growth. His listeners know that the mustard seed is tiny, yet Jesus tells them that from the smallest of seeds comes a tree so large that birds can nest in it. The kingdom of God is like that mustard seed, he says.

A second image, which Jesus uses elsewhere, makes the same point. The kingdom of God is like the yeast a woman mixes in with flour. A small amount of yeast has a huge effect – it can produce bread for a lot of people. The kingdom of God is like yeast, Jesus tells them.

The message is clear: the kingdom of God may have small, unimpressive beginnings, but like the mustard seed and the yeast, it will grow into something big and have an effect out of all proportion to its humble start. ■

REFLECT

These are challenging times for the Church in the West. We know the statistics; we can see with our own eyes how church attendance is falling even as the average age of priests and religious is increasing. The COVID-19 lockdowns of the last eighteen months have made matters worse. It is easy to feel down and demoralised.

It can seem like the yeast has lost its power, that the mustard seed is desiccating. We can be tempted to think that the promise Jesus made is not being fulfilled, and that, far from expanding, the kingdom of God is contracting and even dying.

That is why it's so important to hold fast to the promise Jesus made to his disciples, and that he makes to us too. Jesus assures us that the kingdom of God will flourish because it is God's will that it flourishes. And we are called to trust in Jesus. We trust in Jesus by putting our trust in small things and in God's grace.

The Holy Spirit is alive and active. Lots of small things are happening out there that are enabling the kingdom to grow. Many Catholics are looking seriously at what it means to be Church. They know the Church isn't made up just of bishops, priests and religious but of all the people of God. They are thinking about what needs to be done to help promote renewal and new life in the Church, how they can be a seed or a leaven in the lives of others and of their parish community. Just as the kingdom of God grew out of small things, they know that the little things we do, the little acts of love we show, even if they appear insignificant in isolation, can grow into something wonderful. ■

DO

Think about those who have been a seed, a leaven, in your life, those family members or others who shaped and inspired you to become the person you are. How can you be a seed, a leaven, in the lives of others in these challenging times?

Think about those who feel excluded from or hurt by the Church. How can you be a mustard seed, a gram of yeast, in their lives that transforms and heals and builds up? What might you need to change in your thinking so as to help bring about real growth and transformation in the Church?

SAY

“Lord, help me to hasten the flowering of God's kingdom of justice, peace and love by being a seed, a leaven, in the life of my Church and my community. Amen.”

LEARN

The word of God is something alive and active.

All our prayers and good works, no matter how seemingly small, help God's kingdom to flourish.

PRAY

Pray for missionaries and all who work to sow the seeds of God's kingdom throughout the world. Pray that you also will be an effective missionary of the Gospel.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION: Congratulations to Olivia, Grace and Sam who will receive Holy Communion for the first time at Masses this weekend.

LEVEL 2 COVID UPDATE: Some of the restrictions in place until now have been relaxed. For example, at the reception of communion, the priest will say, "The Body of Christ" and the people respond "Amen". Ventilation of the building remains important, especially between Masses. When possible, the doors will also remain open during Masses for the wellbeing of everyone. We can gradually re-introduce the Offertory Procession.

When the Government announces that we can move to Level 1, other liturgical practices can be resumed. The Holy Water fonts will remain empty, the shaking of hands at the Sign of Peace is still suspended and Communion cannot be taken from the chalice. Congregational singing can return. However, face coverings must still be worn (unless an exemption is in place or for children under 5) and physical distancing between households observed. The requirement for physical distancing may, in time, be reduced from 2 metres to 1 metre, although this depends on progress made in the race between successful vaccination and the transmission of the virus.

Thank you to the stewards for their commitment and work over the last year. Without them we would not be able to celebrate public Mass as we are doing.

JUNIOR PASTORAL PARISH COUNCIL: Young parishioners from primary 7 age upwards are invited to volunteer to become members of a Junior Parish Pastoral Council and plan opportunities to live out their faith and serve others. Please contact Fr Stephen if you are interested.

Hall bookings: suspended until further notice.

Safeguarding co-ordinator: Margaret McGrath (01563 542130)

Crosshouse and Ayr Hospitals: Ask hospital staff to page on-call priest chaplain.

Standing orders: £805.69. Weekly collection: £821.72. Communications: £3. Flowers: £20.

Apostolate of Life: £52. Organ Restoration Fund: £500. Building Fund (to Organ Fund): £66. SCIAF: £90.

Organ Restoration Fund total to date: £55,470.36.

Thank you for your generous support of the parish and to all who have set up standing orders.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL: The minutes of the Parish Pastoral Council meeting of Tuesday 8th June are now available on the parish website.

THE CHURCH GARDENS: Thank you to the volunteers who, often several times a week, faithfully tend the gardens and plants around the church. The grounds are beautiful for all who attend and visit St Joseph's.

ST COLUMBA: St Columba was born 1,500 years ago on 9th June. Columba was a great gift from God to the people of Ireland and Scotland but also to the Universal Church. His mission to spread the Gospel in Scotland and beyond built upon the evangelisation begun by St Ninian in Galloway. The Papal Nuncio, Archbishop Claudio Gugerotti, and the bishops of Scotland gathered this week in Oban and later on Iona to celebrate this anniversary at Mass in Iona Abbey. They are pictured below outside Oban's cathedral with pupils from St Columba's Primary, Oban.

RETURNING TO MASS IN PERSON: What will be the pace of our emerging from this pandemic remains as yet unclear. What is clear is the challenge we face of bringing our communities and the practice of the faith to a still greater expression and strength.

Being able to pray Mass by livestream has, for many, been the best possible option when public worship was suspended. This is not, however, the same as gathering in person to celebrate what Jesus asked us to do in memory of him and to receive him in the sacrament of Holy Communion.

There are valid reasons why some people are still wary about returning to Mass in person and gathering in an enclosed space. However, if a person has just got out of the habit of attending, now may be the time to make an effort to return to Mass.

Communion can be brought to the homes of those who are unable to attend Mass in person for reasons of health. Please contact Fr Stephen if you wish to receive communion.

It has been heartening to see people return who had not previously felt confident to do so in these last weeks. Fulfilling the Covid restrictions and depending on the composition of household groups we are now able to accommodate up to around 90 people in the church building for Mass. Especially on a Sunday, the church hall provides an overflow to allow more people to gather and receive Holy Communion. We have been using the church hall more while some of our children receive First Holy Communion. Please, if you feel able, return to Sunday Mass. Booking arrangements are detailed below.

BOOKING FOR MASS AT ST JOSEPH'S. Weekend Mass: Online booking is preferred. You can book a place at Mass on the parish website at <http://www.rckilmarnock.org.uk/st-josephs-mass-booking/>. Booking for the following weekend opens the previous Sunday at 6 pm and closes on Wednesday at 12 noon.

Telephone bookings for the following Sunday may be made by calling 01563 521832 on Wednesday between 11.00 am and 12 noon. Confirmation of a place at Mass will be given by email or telephone by Friday.

Weekday Mass: There is no need to book a place for weekday Mass – just come along.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help.
Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour!

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

COLLECT

O God, strength of those who hope in you, graciously hear our pleas,
and, since without you mortal frailty can do nothing,
grant us always the help of your grace,
that in following your commands
we may please you by our resolve and our deeds.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING Ezekiel 17:22-24

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel.

The Lord says this:

"From the top of the cedar,
from the highest branch I will take a shoot
and plant it myself on a very high mountain.
I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel.
It will sprout branches and bear fruit,
and become a noble cedar.

Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches.

And every tree of the field will learn that I,
the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow,
who withers green trees and makes the withered green.

I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM Psalm 91

Response:

It is good to give you thanks, O Lord.

- 1. It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High,

to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. (R.)

- 2. The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. (R.)

- 3. Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. (R.)

SECOND READING 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

We are always full of confidence, when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight – we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ the sower;
whoever finds the seed will remain for ever.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 4:26-34

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Jesus said to the crowds, "This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time: he starts to reap because the harvest has come."

He also said, "What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade."

Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(all bow during the next three lines)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored
and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

O God, who in the offerings presented here provide for the twofold needs of human nature,
nourishing us with food
and renewing us with your Sacrament,
grant, we pray,
that the sustenance they provide
may not fail us in body or in spirit.
Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

There is one thing I ask of the Lord, only this do I seek:
to live in the house of the Lord all the days
of my life.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

As this reception of your Holy Communion, O Lord,
foreshadows the union of the faithful in you,
so may it bring about unity in your Church.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Behold O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in your sight
while with deep affection and grief of soul
I mentally contemplate your five most precious wounds, having before my eyes the words that David the prophet spoke about you, most sweet Jesus: "They have pierced my hands and feet, and I can count every one of my bones."

Traditional "Prayer before a Crucifix" to be said after Communion
